

WARNING!!

Fraudulent “GED” Diplomas

- The Arizona Department of Education is the only organization lawfully allowed to issue the Arizona High School Equivalency Diploma.
- This diploma is issued upon the successful completion of the GED® Test.
- You cannot earn an official GED credential or take the official GED® Test via the Internet or through any correspondence program.
- The official GED® Test must be taken at an authorized Test Center.
- Any services that claim to offer a GED credential online, through correspondence or any other means, are NOT affiliated with GEDTS (General Educational Development Testing Service) or ACE (American Council on Education). These services may not be accepted by employers, colleges and universities, or the military.
